The Benders are perhaps best known today for being mentioned by Laura Ingalls Wilder, the author of the books Little House on the Prairie, who claimed to have been to the inn and even that her father had been involved in the manhunt for the fugitive family. Although the story has been seen with skepticism over the years, the testimony

Little Slaughterhouse in the Prairie discusses the crimes of the Benders that lived during the time of Laura Ingals Wilder. The Benders preyed upon single people stopping by and Laura said (outside of her books) that her dad had stopped to get water but didn't go inside, he might have died if he had!
