Write poems containing onomatopoeia. Use onomatopoeia in your own writing to communicate more clearly. Bang is a common example of onomatopoeia. Just what is onomatopoeia?
Onomatopoeia is a word that imitates the source of a sound that the word describes. For example, a clock makes a tick tock noise. Tick and tock are examples of onomatopoeia.

A good resource for students to write their own poems using similes. I would use this when teaching about poetry tools such as a simile. A fun way to start off a poetry unit. Students fill in the blanks about themselves and in the end they have a poem all about them.
