There is a place just south of Biloxi Mississippi where all of the lost beats from jazz drummers are stored. I really hate it when jazz drummers play downbeats but there's nothing wrongs with that. I used to hate it more. I saw Peter Erskine last night and at one spot he was playing on the two and it just irked me. I guess I'm the other extreme.

Amazing techno street drummer Dario Rossi

His use of missed/added beats (Spirits in a Material World) are what propelled him to be one of the best drummers ever. He is not know for being a soloist but he is an amazing drummer that no one has been able to emulate and his contribution with songwriting in the band was also a major point in his legacy that he left with The Police.
