Hi Donna- I honestly began reading the article on my morning Seattle commute-got to that phrase "harsh Reconstruction-and stopped. I assumed it must be coming from someone who still subscribes to (or didn't bother to fact-check) the myth of tragic Southern humiliation because Reconstruction dared to allow blacks to vote, marry, hold office, marry etc.

Reconstruction era - Wikipedia

One of the books documenting American reconstruction after civil war is "The Reconstruction Era: Primary Documents on Events from 1865 to 1877" by Donna Lee Dickerson. This historical period was chosen because it has a significant aspect of American history, that is, reconstruction. Dickerson writes this book to show the contribution of most writers and particularly the role independent journalism played in agitating the bid for reconstruction in this period.
