Here are what I call the basics of the Christian walk. These are the specific areas that each new Christian has to be gradually led into if they are really going to enter into the real walk with the Lord. I will first list them out in a numbered, bolded format so you can have all of them right at the top of this article.

11 Worship Songs to Remind Us That God Is Still in Control

This is what started it all almost 15 years ago. Today, we open our shop only a few times a year, for only a few days at a time, allowing you to shop the apparel collections that we work hard to create just for you. Everything we do here at walk in love. is to remind you to live simply, choose joy, and walk in love. I want to go there.

Love is the bottom line. Nothing counts without it. In short, you can't go anywhere spiritually or in your relationships until you get your love walk straight! No wonder the Bible tells us to: "Eagerly pursue and see to acquire [this] love [make it your aim, your great quest]" (1 Corinthians 14:1).

Why? Because what pleases God is walking by the Spirit and being led by the Spirit and bearing the fruit of the Spirit! The great problem in contemporary Christian living is not learning the right things to do but how to do the right things. The problem is not to discover what love looks like but how to love by the Spirit.
